

Where to find fantastic books

Fairfield High school students can access over 1500 eBooks and more than 900 audiobooks using our very own eLibrary here:

<https://fairfield.eplatform.co/>

Other great places to find books you can read for free with Bristol Libraries:

Go here to find details including location and opening hours of your local library:

<https://www.bristol.gov.uk/libraries-archives/find-a-library>

Not a member yet? You can join the library online here:

<https://www.bristol.gov.uk/libraries-archives/join-the-library>

ebooks

ebooks for children. 300 titles aimed at ages 5 to 12

<https://librarieswest.wheelers.co/>

Cloud Library - Over 10,000 adults' and children's eBooks, with new titles regularly added.

<https://ebook.yourcloudlibrary.com/library/LW/Featured>

Overdrive - A range of adult fiction and non-fiction eBooks from 'OverDrive', along with a selection of children's titles.

<https://bristollibraries.overdrive.com/>

eAudio books

Listen to audio books online: Over 2,500 adults' and children's eAudio books, with new titles regularly added.

<http://www.borrowbox.com/librarieswest/>

Comics, newspapers and magazines

Libby App

<https://libbyapp.com/>

Overdrive eMagazines gives access to around 3,000 online magazines suitable for a range of age groups.

Access eComics to choose from around 2,800 comics and graphic novels suitable for a wide range of age groups.

<http://www.pressreader.com/>

Poetry online:

Lots of poetry can be found online, and you might also find your chosen poet performing their work on YouTube.

BBC Bitesize also has loads to offer if you want to read other work by poets featured in this reading challenge. Why not explore some of their other works?

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/subjects/z3kw2hv>