

■ EDUCATION

• It was not only humans that dressed up for World Book Day at Fairfield High School - the doors were adorned too, in a competition that demonstrated much creative flair and love for books. This Where's Wally entry, which came third, featured a number of FHS staff members.