

Fairfield's new principal

EDEL Cronin, who has recently been interim principal at Fairfield High School, is the school's new permanent principal.

She has previously been vice principal, transition lead and achievement coordinator and, is dedicated to fostering an inclusive and innovative learning environment.

She said: "I am honoured to be chosen to represent this wonderful, diverse school and look forward to giving everything I have in order to ensure it continues to flourish."

Jeremy Benson, chair of the academy committee, said Ms Cronin was "the perfect fit for Fairfield as it enters its next exciting chapter."
