

Family Fund: Financial support for carers

Your Opportunity grants from Family Fund support disabled and seriously ill young adults (aged 18-24) living at home. Families on low incomes can apply for funding to support independence, interests and ambitions. Please share this opportunity so parents and carers can apply.

SALT is being reviewed: Give your feedback

The Speech and Language Therapy service is under review. Your feedback is crucial in shaping future support for children and young people. Please complete our very short survey as soon as possible to ensure your insights are included in the review process.

New drop-in for young people

Creative Youth Network offers a new drop-in session for young people (aged 11-18) at The Station in central Bristol. Available Monday-Friday, 2pm-8pm, no referral needed. Speak one-to-one with a team member for support, with ongoing sessions if desired. Please pass on this information to any young people you think may benefit.

PINS update

The Department for Education has announced that the Partnership for Inclusion of Neurodiversity in Schools (PINS) programme, which supports neurodiverse students by training teachers to identify and better meet their needs and improves parental engagement, will be extended for another year across a further 1,200 schools.
