

This schedule shows the normal frequency and typical tasks for each subject. The Home Learning Policy explains how tasks are set, supported and followed up. Teachers may vary a task or deadline in response to the curriculum or a student's needs, and should make any change clear on Teams.

Year 7 Introduction

To support with transition, Year 7 have a staggered start to homework.

September: English, maths and MFL. Work is paper based for the first three weeks while Teams access is set up.

October: English, maths, MFL and science.

From Term 2: the subject schedule below applies.

Subject schedule

Subject	Key stage 3	Key stage 4
Art and Engineering	One key vocabulary test per rotation.	One coursework completion task per term.
Child Development and Health and Social Care	Not applicable.	Fortnightly coursework research tasks; key vocabulary and spelling tests. In Year 11, weekly exam revision using the revision book.
Citizenship	Each unit: preparation for vocabulary and definition tests and revision for end-of-unit assessments. Additional subject tasks may be set.	Year 11: fortnightly tasks, including textbook preparation or exam questions; fortnightly quick-test questions; revision before PPEs.
Classics	Not applicable.	Weekly revision task, checked in lessons; vocabulary revision for a test once per term.
Computer Science	Year 7: one task per term from Term 3. Years 8 and 9: no required task stated for the rotation; students may complete classwork at home.	Fortnightly task; revision for mid-point and end-of-unit assessments.
Dance	One task per term, such as a worksheet, lines or choreography practice; one literacy quiz per term.	Year 10: fortnightly task. Year 11: weekly task.
Drama	One task per term, such as a worksheet, lines or performance rehearsal; one literacy quiz per term.	Fortnightly task.
English	Two tasks per term focused on preparation for vocabulary tests.	Tasks support revision and preparation for termly assessments; resources are provided or signposted.
Humanities	Two to three tasks per term, including vocabulary or knowledge tests and assessment revision; optional academic reading, podcasts or research.	One to two tasks per fortnight, including tests, revision and exam practice; optional additional challenge.
Maths	Years 7 to 9: weekly MyMaths task linked to current learning. Additional	Year 10: weekly MyMaths task. Year 11: weekly exam practice and one revision-

	work may be set in response to termly assessment.	book task per term. Additional work may be set in response to termly assessment.
MFL	Weekly task, such as vocabulary, preparation, revision, writing or work on a subject website.	Weekly task, such as vocabulary, preparation, revision, writing or work on a subject website.
Music	One task per term linked to the topic, such as vocabulary, preparation or a quiz.	Weekly task, which may include preparation for lessons.
PE	One vocabulary quiz, one self-assessment and one preparation task per term.	Sport Science: fortnightly task.
Science	Years 7 to 9: fortnightly Educake quiz. A topic guide and revision task are set on Teams at the start of each topic. Further tasks may be set in Year 9.	Years 10 and 11: fortnightly Educake quiz. A topic guide and revision task are set on Teams at the start of each topic. Additional exam practice or preparation may be set.